

GJEC Fellowships for Dissertation Research & Completion

The Gender, Justice, and Environmental Change (GJEC) Program, at the Center for Gender in Global Context (GenCen), is pleased to announce fellowships for MSU graduate students for the 2017-18 academic year. Generous funding provided by MSU's Graduate School allows us to offer six fellowship opportunities of up to $8,500 and $10,000*** in the following two categories:

GJEC Dissertation Research Fellowship (Up to $10,000)

Eligibility: Ph.D. students at MSU who have completed all requirements for their degree with the exception of their dissertation research. Applicants must have dissertation projects that focus specifically on the gender dimensions of environmental and/or agricultural change.

GJEC Dissertation Completion Fellowship ($8,500)

Eligibility: Ph.D. students at MSU who have completed dissertation research and all other requirements for their degree program, except for completion of the dissertation. Applicants must graduate by Spring 2018, and their dissertations must focus on the gender dimensions of environmental and/or agricultural change.

Funding must be used during the 2017-18 academic year. Applications are due April 15, 2017, and are available at www.gencen.msu.edu/funding/gjec.htm

* If submitting your application electronically, submissions must be in Word or PDF format.

**Awards are contingent upon funds approval and funding will first be applied to any outstanding MSU bills, including MSU short-term loans, tuition bills, etc.

***Students awarded the completion fellowship cannot receive more than the equivalent of a one-quarter time assistantship from other sources during the semester in which they receive the award. The fellowship is intended to free up students' time to finish writing their dissertation.
