

The Center for Gender in Global Context invites submissions for the

Mary Anderson Award for the Best Undergraduate Paper on Women and Gender in Global Perspective

The Center for Gender in Global Context invites MSU undergraduate students to submit a paper for its annual competition, named to honor former women's rights activist and MSU Women's Studies scholar Dr. Mary Anderson, who lost her battle with breast cancer in 1993. The paper should have been completed within the past year and should focus on issues related to women and gender in global perspective. Papers should be approximately 15-20 double-spaced pages in length.

Papers will be reviewed by a faculty committee, and the award will be presented at the GenCen Annual Reception on February 2, 2018. The winning paper may be peer reviewed for publication in the GPID Working Paper Series or on the GenCen website. Authors will receive a $250.00 prize.

Submissions are to be made to the GenCen office via email at gencen@msu.edu (in Microsoft Word). Please indicate that you are submitting to the competition and be sure to include a contact phone number and email address.

A list of previous winners can be found on the GenCen website at www.gencen.msu.edu/undergraduate-students/funding/#StudentComps
