

Undergraduate students interested in health, medicine, gender, and sexuality?

Join us for a lunch and discussion with Dr. Georgiann Davis, professor of Sociology and author of Contesting Intersex: The Dubious Diagnosis

Thursday, February 22nd
11:30am - 1:00pm, 303 International Center

Georgiann Davis, PhD, is assistant professor of sociology at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. Her research and teaching is at the intersection of sociology of diagnosis and feminist theories. Her work appears in the American Journal of Bioethics, Gender & Society, Psychology & Sexuality, and Feminist Formations, and she co-edited a special issue on intersex for the journal Narrative Inquiry in Bioethics with Ellen Feder, PhD. Her book, Contesting Intersex: The Dubious Diagnosis (NYU Press, 2015) won awards in the American Sociological Association's sections on Sex and Gender and Medical Sociology. She is the current board president of interACT: Advocates for Intersex Youth (2017- present), and the former president of the AIS-DSD Support Group.

This event will be capped at 15 students. Email gencen@msu.edu to RSVP as soon as possible, but no later than Wednesday, February 14.

Lunch will be provided by GenCen.
