MSU Sponsored Gender Related Internship Opportunities:

Gender and Development: NGO Internships in Malawi - Allows students the opportunity to carry a full semester course load while participating in a non-governmental organization (NGO) internship. Students begin coursework for six weeks in East Lansing during Spring Semester and spend ten weeks in Malawi (Summer Session), which includes a six-week full-time internship with an NGO. For more information, go to:

<http://studyabroad.msu.edu/programs/africangointern.html> or contact Ann Chrapkiewicz at gencenad@msu.edu

Semester Study Program in Washington, DC - A twelve-week program that offers a full semester of courses (students earn 12-15 MSU credits) and includes a 32-hour per week internship. The Program is open to all majors and all colleges on campus. For more information, go to: www.socialscience.msu.edu/dcprogram

Hawaii Study and Internship Program - Each summer, two unique programs are offered: The Study Program, where students learn in-depth aspects of native culture alongside University of Hawaii students and The Internship Program, for MSU seniors, offers interns an opportunity to work alongside Honolulu professionals in a wide variety of venues.
