

Inspirational Woman of the Year Award

Call for Nominations

The Center for Gender in Global Context (GenCen) at Michigan State University is proud to announce a call for nominations for the 2019 Inspirational Woman of the Year Award. The award recognizes the achievements of women faculty, academic staff, support staff, and administrators affiliated with Michigan State University. The award highlights women or femme-identified individuals who demonstrate integrity, leadership, quality performance, integrative and inclusive action, and influence on campus and beyond. One individual will be honored in each category: Community Engagement, Culture of Empowerment, and Professional Achievement.

Award Categories

Community Engagement

Advances communities and organizations at MSU and/or communities beyond campus through service and volunteerism, leadership and/or other involvement.

Culture of Empowerment

Dedication to the advancement/empowerment of women on campus and/or in communities across the globe through mentoring, programs, and other leadership opportunities.

Professional Achievement

Demonstrates a unique drive and passion within their career and positively influences the culture of MSU.

New for 2019!

This year, GenCen has added the Greater Lansing Inspirational Woman of the Year Award for non-MSU employees. If you know an inspirational woman or femme-identified individual you believe should be recognized for her commitment to equity within the greater Lansing area, we encourage you to nominate her for this prestigious award.

Nomination Deadline

November 8, 2018

See gencen.msu.edu/iwoty/ for application materials and nomination criteria.

Nomination packets must be submitted as a PDF to the Center for Gender in Global Context at gencen@msu.edu by 11:59 p.m. on the nomination deadline.