

GenCen Internships

Application Deadlines

Fall Internships: Apply by July 1st
Spring Internships: Apply by November 1st
Summer Internships: Apply by March 1st

The GenCen internship program offers internship coordination services and support to MSU undergraduate and graduate students interested in gender issues related to social justice, human rights, community development, reproductive health, domestic violence, and/or environmental health and justice. The internship is designed to help students explore gender-related career fields while gaining valuable hands-on experience at local, national or international organizations.

Internship Details:

- Work with the GenCen Internship Coordinator to find the right organization for you and to arrange for MSU credit
- Flexible schedules
- Fall and Spring internships are typically 10 hours per week
- Summer internships can be part-time or full-time
- Students can complete international GenCen internships along with some MSU study abroad programs
- Advanced undergraduate and graduate students are encouraged to apply
- Most internships are unpaid, however some offer work-study to eligible students. Students are encouraged to contact the GenCen internship coordinator to discuss upcoming scholarship opportunities.

Benefits of GenCen Internships:

- Learn first-hand how gender issues are being addressed in today's society!
- Receive credit from your department or college for the internship.
- Gain valuable academic and professional experience.
- Find networking opportunities for your future career.
- Be involved in interesting projects and programs, not just clerical work!
