

Gail Stern

"The Canary in the Coal Mine"
It's On Us Keynote

This presentation utilizes the ongoing debate over whether or not rape jokes are appropriate to explore the foundations of rape culture in a meaningful and accessible way. The Canary in the Coal Mine will highlight what factors support sexual violence within popular and military cultures, drawing on research from the fields of moral development education, bystander intervention, and sexual violence prevention education.

Thursday, April 4, 2019

Two Presentations: 1:00PM - 2:30PM and 5:30PM - 7:00PM

Both presentations will be in Room 1300 of the FRIB

Dr. Gail Stern is the co-founder of Catharsis Productions, co-author of the non-stranger rape prevention program Sex Signals, and author of the programs, Beat the Blame Game, and Teaching Rape as a Moral Issue.

Sponsored by GenCen and the Prevention, Outreach and Education Department

Co-sponsors: College of Agriculture and Natural Resources; College of Arts & Letters; College of Education; College of Engineering; College of Natural Science; College of Social Science