

The Center for Gender in Global Context Presents

UNDERGRAD RESEARCH SHOWCASE

The Center for Gender in Global Context (GenCen) invites you to attend our fifth biennial research conference on Friday, March 29, 2019. MSU undergrad students will be presenting research that explores issues of gender, women, and sexuality locally, nationally, and globally.

Lunch will be provided for pre-registered attendees!

Register online at <https://tinyurl.com/URSreg2019> by March 8, 2019.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: DR. JACQUELINE RHODES (WRAC) "ONCE A FURY: REMEMBERING REVOLUTION"

This presentation offers outtakes of interview with the Furies, a lesbian separatist collective from the early 1970s who published an underground newspaper with a national run. The group formed quickly and ended dramatically, with multiple purges, suspicion of FBI involvement, and myriad interpersonal conflicts—most of which they wrote about in their newspaper. Now, 50 years later, they're talking. Present and past interviews put forward this group's arguments and insights, offering a multi-layered discussion of overlapping histories. In this presentation, Dr. Rhodes offers some insights about the politics of voicing, focusing in particular on the process of attempting to ethically and respectfully listen to and represent other's stories, drawing from feminist work on story, voice, and silence.

More info: gencen.msu.edu/urs