Best Graduate Paper on Women and Gender in Global Context

The Center for Gender in Global Context (GenCen) invites MSU graduate students to submit a paper for its annual Rita S. Gallin Award competition. The award is named for Dr. Gallin in honor of her 13 years as director of the Women and International Development Program and her scholarship in the area of women, gender, international development, and globalization.

Paper Requirements:

- 18-22 pages, not including bibliography
- 12-point, Times New Roman, double-spaced
- Completed within the last calendar year prior to submission
- Focus on issues related to women, gender, international development, and globalization
- Submitted in .doc or .docx format to link below

Papers will be reviewed by a faculty committee, and the award will be presented at the GenCen Annual Reception. Winning author(s) will receive a $250.00 prize. The winning paper may also be peer-reviewed for publication in the GPID Papers and/or on the GenCen website.

Submissions are to be made via Qualtrics by 11:59p.m. on December 11, 2020.
